UNITED WAY SOUTHERN CHESTER COUNTY ANNOUNCES GRANT RECIPIENTS TO SUPPORT LOCAL FAMILIES & COMMUNITIES

WHAT:

United Way of Southern Chester County (UWSCC) is proud to announce the latest round of grant funding for local nonprofit agencies addressing critical community needs. These grants will help provide essential services such as food assistance, early childhood education, mental health support, and financial stability programs for families in need.

WHO:

- Darcie Martin, CEO, United Way Southern Chester County
- Representatives from grant recipient agencies
- Community leaders and donors

WHEN:

Wednesday, May 20, 5:30pm

WHERE:

Episcopal Church of the Advent, 401 N. Union Street, Kennett Square, PA

WHY:

With the growing ALICE (Asset Limited, Income Constrained, Employed) population in Southern Chester County, families who work hard but struggle to afford basic necessities rely on local nonprofit programs. UWSCC's community-driven funding model ensures that donations are strategically invested in impactful, life-changing services in our region.

MEDIA OPPORTUNITIES:

- Interviews with UWSCC leadership and grant recipients
- Photo and video opportunities with nonprofit leaders and community members
- Stories of impact from individuals and families benefiting from these programs
